Tuscany in 2011 Couples @ Cooking

Imagine . . .

taking the remarkable Imago workshop Getting the Love You Want in a medieval hilltop village in Tuscany, Italy! Experience this amazing three day adventure through the stages of intimate relationship. Develop practical communication skills while also attending an Italian Cooking School Il Campo/Cucina (The Field) prior to or after your workshop in the same village. Feel excitement at the mystery of transforming earth's bounty into life affirming food, while also transforming your ordinary frustrations into the relationship you've always dreamed. Learn the skills and identify the resources that make cooking a great pleasure.

Discover your inner resources and identify the skills you need to make these resources work to increase the safety and passion in your relationship. You'll go home not only with new knowledge of creating exquisite Italian cuisine from ordinary ingredients found in nature, you'll also go home with the skill and knowledge to make your relationship challenges work for you rather than against you.
